

VFW National Convention Heats Up in Phoenix

The Secretary of Veterans Affairs and Chef Robert Irvine are two of the highlights for the week-long event

PHOENIX — Secretary of Veterans Affairs Denis McDonough returns as one of many featured speakers who will join more than 10,000 members of the Veterans of Foreign Wars (VFW) and its Auxiliary during the 124th VFW National Convention as it convenes this Saturday through July 27 at the Phoenix Convention Center in Phoenix, Arizona.

“Nothing makes me prouder than to have my home state host our national convention,” said VFW National Commander Tim Borland, who is a Gold Legacy Life member of VFW Post 9972 in Sierra Vista, Arizona. “For the past two years, we held our convention close to our national headquarters in Kansas City, Missouri. It feels good to travel across this great land, celebrate all our accomplishments over this past year and remind all of us that every veteran counts.”

The list of guest speakers includes USAA CEO Wayne Peacock; Twisted X CEO Prasad Reddy; vice minister of the Taiwanese Veterans Affairs Council Wu, Chih-Yang; Deputy Director POW/MIA Accounting Agency Fern Sumpter Winbush and former Senior Enlisted Advisor to the Chairman of the Joint Chiefs and VFW National Ambassador SEAC (Ret.) John Wayne Troxell. On Tuesday, Secretary McDonough makes his second appearance at the VFW National Convention. Celebrity Chef Robert Irvine will receive the VFW Distinguished Citizenship Award, the first to receive the honor.

The 10,000 VFW and VFW Auxiliary delegates represent the organizations’ total combined membership of more than 1.5 million at the weeklong convention. Their mission will be to approve new national priorities to guide the VFW as it lobbies Congress on issues important to the nation’s veterans, service members and their families. In addition, convention delegates will also elect a new VFW national commander, Duane Sarmiento, of Gibbstown, New Jersey, as well as recognize prominent individuals and organizations for their support
