1. VFW Elects New National Leadership: Delegates attending the 120th VFW National Convention in Orlando, Fla., last week elected William J. “Doc” Schmitz as commander-in-chief of the near 1.2 million-member organization. The VFW’s new “Chief” is a Vietnam veteran who served as a Navy corpsman attached to Marine Corps infantry and artillery units. He joined the VFW in 1971 at Post 524 in his hometown of Corning, N.Y., where he has served the VFW in many vital leadership positions at the local, state, and national levels. He takes office during a time of great momentum for the organization, which recently announced its first membership increase in 27 years, enabled 526,000 veterans to recoup a record $8.3 billion in disability compensation and pension from the VA, fought for the successful passage of the Blue Water Navy Vietnam Veterans Act of 2019, and continues to advocate for the fullest possible accounting of more than 82,000 missing and unaccounted-for Americans from our nation’s wars. Doc’s challenge to members and advocates is “Dare to Care,” a call for everyone to help confront the challenges that hinder America’s service members and families from living their best lives. Also elected were Hal J. Roesch II of Hampton, Va., as VFW Senior Vice Commander-in-Chief, and Matthew M. “Fritz” Mihelcic, of Columbia, Ill., as VFW Junior Vice Commander-in-Chief. Read more.

2. New Executive Director Appointed to Lead VFW Washington Office: B.J. Lawrence, the immediate past VFW national commander, has been appointed to succeed Bob Wallace as the new executive director of the VFW Washington Office. Lawrence, who just last week completed a highly successful one-year tour leading the venerable, 120-year-young national organization, will lead the VFW Washington Office into its second century of legislative advocacy and veterans service work on behalf of the nation’s veterans, service members, and their families. The VFW’s advocacy in Washington is legendary, and has led to the creation of every veteran and military quality of life program signed into law in this century and the last. “I look forward to continuing to improve the lives of our veteran and military communities, and for the VFW to have an even more respected and sought after voice on Capitol Hill,” said Lawrence. The VFW Washington Office was created in 1919 after World War I veterans began returning to the same government neglect as the VFW’s founders experienced two decades earlier. “And although birthed one century ago,” Lawrence explained, “the important work the VFW Washington Office continues to do is just as important now as it was then. I am honored to accept the torch from Bob, and to continue to build upon the strong traditions of excellence he and his predecessors established in Washington.”

3. 2020 VFW-SVA Legislative Fellowship Application is Open: The 2020 VFW-SVA Legislative Fellowship is now accepting applications! The program, which is in its sixth year, is for VFW members who attend an accredited institute of higher learning. Ten student veterans will be selected for the semester-long program that focuses on real policy issues faced by veterans, service members, and their families. The highlight of the program is participation in the VFW Legislative Conference, which in the past has included meetings at the White House and with senior officials from the Department of Veterans Affairs and Congress. Those selected also spend time with their VFW Department members on Capitol Hill pushing the VFW’s legislative priorities. Alumni of the program have become more active in all levels of the VFW and changing laws to improve care and benefits for veterans. Learn more and apply for the fellowship.

4. VFW Life Member Now Secretary of Defense: The Senate last week confirmed former Secretary of the Army Dr. Mark Esper as the new Secretary of Defense. Esper is a retired Army lieutenant colonel and Life member of the VFW Department of Pennsylvania. He is a 1986 West Point graduate who served as an infantry officer with the 101st Airborne Division during Operations Desert Shield and Desert Storm. Watch his July 16 Senate Armed Services Committee confirmation hearing.

5. Korean/Cold War MIA Family Update: The VFW Washington Office attended the Korean/Cold War Family’s annual meeting this week in nearby Arlington, Va. Hosted by the Defense POW/MIA Accounting Agency, the purpose was to highlight successes and continuing challenges to locate and recover more than 7,700 unaccounted-for Americans on the Korean Peninsula. Atop the agenda was the lack of movement in reopening DPAA-led recovery operations in North Korea, which the U.S. is trying to keep separate from denuclearization talks. One year ago this week, 55 transfer cases containing the co-mingled remains of perhaps more than 150 Americans returned to U.S. soil. To date, eight have been identified, with another two dozen IDs expected to be announced within a few weeks. The VFW is all-in where it concerns the return of missing and unaccounted-for servicemen, and looks forward to continuing to work with DPAA and the families to bring our troops home. Learn more about the DPAA mission.

6. Fight to End Widow’s Tax in Jeopardy: The National Defense Authorization Act for Fiscal Year 2020 (NDAA) includes several VFW-supported provisions. One such provision would eliminate the Widow’s Tax, which is a dollar for dollar offset of earned benefits for the surviving spouses of about 65,000 service members and veterans who have made the ultimate sacrifice. In the coming weeks, Senate leadership will meet in conference to resolve the differences between the Senate and House versions and debate final passage. Since the provision to end the Widow
Tax is not in the Senate version of the NDAA, it is in jeopardy of being left out of the final conference agreement. Contact your Senators and urge them to #AxeWidowsTax this year.

7. Take the Veterans Health Care Survey: Major provisions of the VFW-supported VA MISSION Act of 2018 were recently implemented, including the new Veterans Community Care Program and other improvements to the way VA delivers care to veterans. To gauge the effectiveness of changes and inform its advocacy, the VFW would like feedback on your experience receiving VA health care. Help the VFW hold VA and Congress accountable for fulfilling their mission to veterans by taking a short survey regarding your preferences when receiving health care. Take the survey.

8. VA Walk-In Community Care: As part of the VFW-supported VA MISSION Act of 2018, VA now has a network of urgent care community providers. There are currently 5,000 providers, with VA looking to add an additional 2,000. Urgent care providers can be used for injuries or illnesses that need to be treated immediately but are not life threatening. It is important to note that the eligibility criteria requires that the veteran must be enrolled in the VA health care system and they have to have received care from VA or a VA community provider in the preceding 24 months. The urgent care facility must also be part of VA’s contracted network. Learn more.

9. Border Wall Funding: Last week, the Supreme Court voted 5-4 to allow the Trump Administration to reprogram $6.1 billion in Department of Defense (DOD) funding to expand the barrier that divides the U.S. and Mexico. The bulk of the funding will be taken from military construction; Overseas Contingency Operations; drug interdiction; and military personnel funds from service member pay and compensation, retirement benefits, food, and moving expenses which were lower than originally budgeted. While there are little details regarding which military construction projects will be impacted, guidance issued by DOD states that no military construction projects that already have been awarded, and no military construction projects with FY 2019 award dates will be impacted. Projects like the $5.2 million weapons maintenance shop for Anniston Army Depot in Alabama, which was due to be awarded in March 2020, could be cut. Other projects that would be delayed include: a mission training complex at East Camp Grafenwoehr, Germany; a rotary wing apron at Wheeler Army Air Field in Hawaii; and an engineering center at the U.S. Military Academy. Read the DOD guidance, and see the list of projects that may be impacted.

10. Service Members Killed During Battle of Tarawa Returned: This past month, the Defense POW/MIA Accounting Agency (DPAA) announced that the remains of at least 22 service members that were killed during the Battle of Tarawa were returned to the U.S. during an Honorable Carry Ceremony at Joint Base Pearl Harbor-Hickam, Hawaii. During the battle, approximately 1,000 Marines and sailors were killed and more than 2,000 were wounded, while the Japanese resistance was virtually annihilated. Service members killed in action were buried where they fell, or placed in large trench burials constructed during and after the battle. These graves were typically marked with improvised markers, such as crosses made from sticks, or an up-turned rifle. Grave sites ranged in size from single isolated burials to large trench burials of more than 100 individuals. Read the official DPAA press release.
11. MIA Update: The Defense POW/MIA Accounting Agency has announced the identifications of 10 American servicemen who had been missing and unaccounted for from the Vietnam War, Korean War, and WWII. Returning home for burial with full military honors are:
