First Iraq War Veteran Elected to Lead VFW: Timothy M. Borland was elected as the Commander-in-Chief at the VFW’s 123rd national convention held this year in Kansas City, Missouri. Borland earned his eligibility serving in Korea and Iraq. He joined the organization in 2000 and is a Gold Legacy Life member of Post 9972 in Sierra, Arizona. “My slogan this year is ‘Every Veteran Counts,’” said Borland. “There’s a new wave of veterans that have returned home from the wars in Iraq and Afghanistan and they’re ready, willing and waiting to join our ranks. One of those veterans is standing right here behind this podium. I am an Iraq War veteran and very proud to be the first as your Commander-in-Chief.” Also elected were Duane Sarmiento of New Jersey as VFW Senior Vice Commander-in-Chief, and Alfred J. “Al” Lipphardt of Georgia as VFW Junior Vice Commander-in-Chief. Include Major Richard Star Act in FY23 NDAA: Congress must include the Major Richard Star Act as an amendment in the National Defense Authorization Act (NDAA) for Fiscal Year (FY) 2023. The VFW firmly believes that DOD retired pay and VA service-connected disability compensation are fundamentally different benefits, earned for different reasons. Purple Heart recipients deserve to receive all the benefits they earned. Now is the time to move this legislation forward. Contact your members of Congress and demand they include the Major Richard Star Act as an amendment in the FY23 NDAA. TAKE ACTION!
New 988 Veterans Crisis Hotline: VA announced veterans now have the option to Dial 988 then Press 1 to connect with caring, qualified responders for 24/7 crisis assistance. “During a crisis, every second counts,” said VA Secretary Denis McDonough. “This new, shorter number makes it easier for veterans and those who care about them to reach lifesaving support without having to be enrolled in VA benefits or health care.” While Dial 988 then Press 1 is a new option for contacting the Veterans Crisis Line, the original number, 1-800-273-8255 and press 1, remains available, and individuals can make contact via chat at VeteransCrisisLine.net/Chat or by texting 838255.

Transition Assistance Resources After Service: Many individuals need help navigating their benefits when they leave the military, either immediately or years later. Veterans, family members, and caregivers can access online DOD Transition Assistance Program (TAP) materials and courses at any time following separation from service. With topics including managing transition, financial planning, and VA benefits for spouses and children, veterans can access the broad TAP curriculum as their needs and goals change over time.
