Help VA Stop Education Benefits Fraud:
Scammers are taking advantage of new opportunities to commit fraud. There has been an increase in VA education benefits fraud by VA-approved schools that are billing veterans at a higher tuition rate than civilian students. Veterans and their family members need to be aware and should be cautious of anyone who advertises a lower tuition rate, offers exclusive benefits to civilian students, or bills 20 percent more than a non-VA approved school. To report suspected fraudulent activity, email vaoighotline@va.gov or call 800.488.8244. Read more for tips to protect yourself against these new scams.

VA Closes Gap for Survivors of LGBTQ+ Veterans: VA will now allow certain survivors of LGBTQ+ veterans to apply for benefits, such as Survivors Pension or Dependency and Indemnity Compensation. Due to past bans on same-sex marriages and previous VA marriage requirements, many survivors of LGBTQ+ veterans were not eligible for benefits. Surviving spouses can now establish they had a “marriage-type” relationship by providing documents such as joint banking statements, joint purchase of a house, tax returns, insurance forms, lay statements, and more. These benefits are not retroactive, but those eligible who apply in the next year will receive benefits backdated to Oct.11, 2022. Contact a VFW Service Officer for assistance filing for benefits. Learn more.
VFW’s “Sport Clips Help A Hero Scholarship”

Open Now: Applications are being accepted now through April 30 for the fall 2023 semester. Veterans leaving active military duty need to prepare for civilian careers that often require additional college, graduate, and technical degrees or training. To ease the financial burden of going back to school, Sport Clips and the VFW have teamed up for the past eight years to provide up to $5,000 of assistance per semester, per family, for service members and veterans in the rank of E-5 and below.
